Things were a little more exciting in the South-McCluer North game.

exciting in the South-McCluer North game.
MIKE MARLER got things started for the Warriors at 10:00 of the first half. He scored and look like another South win was in the making.
The score remained 1-0 throughout the rest of the game ... well, almost. At the 33:03 mark of the second half, Mark Collico put one in the re past Warrior goalie Barry Briggs to let things up at 1-1. But that wasn't all of the excitement.

in the first half, Painter slammed home his third goal of the game for a 'hal trick' and a pageared to have the McCluer appeared to have the McCluer appeared to have the McCluer appeared to have the McCluer the highly-touted team from CBC.

SO TODAY, the two squads from Granite City will square off with a combined record of 20-2-2 (North's 1:1-1, South's 9-1-2 win-loss-tie mark) to see who will reign supreme for another year as the king of Granite City soccer.

year as the king of Granile City soccer. South has won five of the eight meetings, North two, and there has been one tie in the series. Kehoe said his team isn't planning anything special for the South game . . things haye worked so far, and the Steelers will be out there "trying their best."

One thing that concerns Kehoe is that his team not be "scared" of South. "I think that's partly why we lost last year (South won 2.0)," he said. "The guys thought, 'On no, it's big, had South!' and lost the game.

"About two weeks ago, I told the team that we were going to start drills for the South game," "I said, "This sour first drill to get ready for them," and then I stood there, shaking my legs and greaning, 'Oh no, not South, "I said, "This sout first drill to get ready for them,' and then and the said that the said

South going for second win in the 'battle of the Injuns'

Warriors and Comanches tomorrow night at Cahokia

The South football Warriors hope to make it two straight wins over Cahokia by Granite City teams when they visit the Comanches at Cahokia tomorrow night for a 7:30 p.m. game. North defeated Cahokia 20-0 on the first weekend of the season.

20-0 on the first weekend of the season.
Since that opening loss to North, the Comanches have played only one game, while most other area ischools have jad two. They took the second weekend of the season off.
Last week, they played at Altorf... they were murdered. The Red Birds defeated them 24.

The Red Birds defeated them 27-6.
Meanwhile, South's Warriors have played two games since the first weekend of the season and have split in the outcomes.
The beat O'Pailon 13-7 two weeks ago and lost to Belleville East last Friday, 40-0. They lost to Jefferson City, Mo., 41-0 in the season's first game.
So, tomorrow might, a team that has scored 13 points in three games (South) will play a team that's scored six points in three games (Gahokia).

BUT SOUTH COACH Stan Wolcik is optimistic about his team's chances.

Running back workhorse Cliff Moran didn't see any action last week for an average of 33 team's chances.

Moran gained 138 yards the last game he played in, South S13-7 win over O'Fallon. He did it on 36 carries.

Moran suffered an ankle injury before the game last when and wap to able to play the pound senior running back, took over most of the running duties. He gained 70 yards on the ground on 24 carries.

losses were on their home field at the Granite City Stadium. This is Caholic of the home game of the season.

The Warriors' record of 1-2 could have taken them out of any post-season playoff possibilities, except for one thing. They didn't do much better last week against Alton. They didn't better last week against Alton. Which Stan Wojek probably hopes it does at least for this morrow's game . . . after all, it's on the road. Their win over O'Fallon came on the road while their two matchings.

Trogas also haven't played against an Illinois school.

They'll get their chance this Saturday aftermoon when they host a strong Columbia team. "They'll be tough," said Jakich. "There's no doubt about that."

Columbia IS tough. So tough in fact, that it has allowed only seven points in three games.

They beat Troy, Mo., 25-0, Lutheran South (St. Louis) 13-7 and Orchard Farm, Mo., 23-0. So it's their first game against a school from Illinois, too. But Columbia coach Joe Day

Veto prevents political gifts by insurance firms

Governor James R. Thompson has vetoed legislation that would have ended the state's 1937 ban on political contributions by insurance companies tributions by insurance com-panies.

In his veto message this week on House Bill 2243, Thompson said: "It is certainly not im-proper or unchical per se for an elected official to accept campaign contributions from

"Any regulatory action taken thereafter would be open to criticism because of the appropriate of impropriety." The governor also vetoed House Bill 1109, which would have changed reporting requirements of the campaign requirements and the regulation of the control of the cont powers over the liquor sales industry.

"Members of the General Assembly regularly debate and vote upon measures of importance to the liquor industry, such as age limitations on the consumpton of alcohol, and yet there is no bar to leislative contributions," the governor said in his veto message.

Elective-appointive vote seen by many as a popularity test

As has been said, a hypothetical city's organizational chart might be a bit more tidy if there was centralized executive branch authority rather than a situation in which dual administrators could blame each other for inaction. But next Tuesday's special Granite City election deals with real people and issues rather than theory, and as a consequence most expect Street Superintendent Lionel Portell to win a vote of confidence.

The superintendent is asking the public to vote "Yes" on "Shall the superintendent of streets of Granite City, Ill., be an elective office?"

An affirmative vote would assure that he and others can seek the office through quadrennial elections, including the spring of 1979, No organized opposition has been announced.

It will be recalled that the City Council — in the "lame duck" period after the 1977 municipal election and before the end of the term — voted to make the office

Helping arouse public ire against the move were its secreey, the last-minute timing, and the fact that most council members declined to specify their disastisfaction with the way the duties of the elective office were being performed. Petitions protesting the City Council decision led to next week's election.

Supt. Portell openly identifies himself with one of two factions struggling for supremacy. He views this as primarily a matter of "self-defense" and says he will cooperate with aldermanic efforts "to establish citywide inventory and purchasing procedures that could cut costs and reduce the relatively wide spending power he has exercised.

He has pledged to try to provide services without resort to favoritism toward certain alderman whom he supports politically—a stand that could lead to less tension between city departments and increased efficiency.

Solid start for drive aiding local human service agencies

Yesterday's capacity turnout for the kickoff breakfast of the Tri-Cities Area United Way campaign gave a rousing sendoff to the yearly drive for health, character building, recreation, rehabilitation and family service agencies. As noted by the speaker, Ray Sonnenberg, an Illinois Sports Hall of Fame member and longtime inspirational youth leader, United Way contributions in a sense provide "seed money" that repays the givers and their community many times in the form of enhanced opportunities and improved quality of life. A big and enthusastic campaign staff has begun a challenging task. With wholehearted citizen participation, it will not fail.

Tough job faces Assembly in making new ballot law work

Governor James Thompson has dumped an arduous job on the doorstep of the Illinois legislature by signing a controversial election consolidation law. While the goal of fewer election days has some validity, the wording fails to deal with many complicating factors, including differing precinct boundaries.

The new law conflicts with but does not repeal many current election statutes. It mangles school districts' and community colleges' tradition of electing a third of their board members annually, and attempts to shorten certain other elective terms in a municipal to be successfully challenged in court in the poorty-prepared legislation, and has asked the General Assembly to enact remedial laws during the veto-override session starting Oct. 24. Since the scheduled effective date is December 1978, the sooner the repair work is started, the better.

Percy could benefit from role in Bert Lance investigation

Press-Record Springfield Bureau - The Press-Record Springfield Bureau — The fall of Bert Lance may have assured the re-election of U-S- Senator Charles H. Percy. Political leaders have been following the Lance affair in an effort to determine whether Percy's prominent role in the investigation would help or hurt his chances for a third term next year. The dramatic developments of Sept. 21 may have settled the question. Chuck Percy is the big winner and his prospects for another victory in 1978 have risen. His supporters felt he did a great job. Critics contended he had come out second best in the televised Senate committee

Critics contended he had come out second best in the televised Senate committee questioning of Lance. The latter argument has now become academic.

The federal management-budget director is gone and Sen. Percy has been proven right in his repeated urging that President Carter remove him. Percy's initial judgment of Lance not only has been sustained, but he played a major role

in-bringing him down.

The senator came over well on television, being one of those fortunate politicians who look young and vigorous on the "tube," Illinoisans may be confused about the Lance financial maneuverings, but they recognize that their senior senator was active in a study of national impact.

A big bonus to Percy in the controversy was the effort to discredit him, launched by Presidential press secretary Jody was the effort to discredit him, launched by Presidential press secretary Jody Powell. That Powell had to publicly apologize for leaking false information about the senator to some metropolitan ewspapers was the greatest boost to Percy's political fortunes since the Democratis picked Roman Pucinski to run against him in 1972.

That so important a White House figure resorted to Watergate-type tactics in an effort to discredit Percy can only strengthen Illinois voters'-loyalty to the senator.

Plan dual name listings in telephone directories

Illinois Bell Manager Ken Evers of Granite City an-nounced today that customers may begin ordering dual name listings in telephone directories from their business office beginning Oct. 3. Such director listings will be available to cover the following situations:

available to cover the following situations:

Two individuals with the same last name living at the same last name living at the same address. Example: Smith, John and Mary.

A second informal first name. Example: Smith, John T. (Tex).

Widows who wish to list their busband's name and their own.

husband's name and their own. Example: Smith, Mary F. (Mrs. John T.).

Example: Smith, Mary. s. (Mrs. John T.). Dual name listings ordered now will appear in 1978 directorithere will be no monthly charge for including a second name along with the primary directory listings, "Evers said. "However, a 56 service order record change charge will charge, which helps offset the cost of modifying company secords, covers all record changes a customer requests at one time."

Evers said that such dual name listings should not be confused with extra directory listings. The most common example of an extra listing is two people with different last manes who share a phone and names. Monthly charges will continue to apply to extra listings.

New farm bill could be costly, cause surpluses

(Press-Record

Washington Bureau)
A little-noticed revision in the new farm bill could add more than $1 billion a year to its cost, according to Rep. Paul Findley, R-III.

R-III.

A wording change expands
Secretary of Agriculture Robert Bergland's power to set subsidies for producers of feed grains other than corn—sorghum, barley and eats.

If Bergland bows to political and producer pressures, it could add more than $1 billion in target price payments to those non-corn feed grain producers, Findley said.

The Pittsfield Republican is fearful Bergland will do just

at. "Secretary Bergland, so far, s not shown much backbone," to properly maintain the stairway and bannister and to provide proper lighting in the stairway.

Wear of the control of the possible authority" to determine—what the relationship should be between corn and the other feed grains in determining the support prices. Currently, price supports for grain sorghum, outs and barley are based on their feed values in relation to the feed values of corn.

Under this system, the price supports are about the same as they are for corn, Findley said. The new farm bill sets a target price of $2.10 a bushel and a loan level of $2 a bushel for corn for a program of $2.00 and $2.00 and $2.00 are a system. ievel of $2 a bushed for corn at 1978, meaning a maximum subsidy of 10 cents a bushel. But the revisions allows the agriculture secretary to set 'fair and reasonable' larget prices for the non-corn feed grains, and it suggests be can use the component costs of the cost of t oats. He said the administration has not announced whether it would have a price support program for oats, but added, "I think you have to assume the worst."

hink you have to assume the worst."

If Bergland does approve high supports for all the feed grains, it would provide "incentive for normous production, which is not economical because you do to get the feed values with those grains that you do with the producers of the producers of According to Findley, whose state is one of the nation's together arm bill will put the nation's farmers in "deep the farm bill will put the nation's farmers in "deep the farm bill will put the nation's farmers in "deep distress" before a year elapses. "Within a year, the government will be paying export subsidies to move the grain oversean."

Although Bergland and President Carter have vowed to avert export subsidies, Findley said the administration will be forced to pay producers the difference between artificiallyset domestic prices and lower foreign market prices in order to reduce the stockplies here. Findley faults Bergiand for market prices and the state of the state

"We would have been better off if there were no new farm bill," said Findley. "We would have been better off if we had just extended the old farm bill — extended the (Earl) Butz legacy."

THIS AD WILL DISAPPEAR IN THIRTY SECONDS ...

Wouldn't that be silly?

That's what is nice about newspaper ads. They don't disappear in thirty seconds. They stay around the home longer. The consumers you want to reach can read your ad at their leisure. And re-read it. And refer to it later. Or clip a coupon from it. Newspaper ads last longer and reach more people than that other media we sometimes hear from - if it happens to be on.

DAY OF THE BALLOONS is the name of multimedia American ravel fantasy showing at Two Busch Gardens theme parks and is also a uitable description of weekend activities in Forest Park and — a short me latter — at Pontoon Beach and Mitchell. Twenty-nine hot air balloonists gathered for the event. Two balloons are about to become airborne and two are already aloft in this view. Generally speaking, a person does not steer a balloon and it goes where the wind goes; the trick is to pick the altitude that has the desired wind direction.

LASERIUM IS AIRBORNE. The colorful hot air balloon is airborne from Forest Park as "Professors" Chuck Zehner smiles in the gondola. Many early professional balloonists tried to lend prestige to their activities by adopting the title of "professors" and today such adventurers are addressed as "professors", "commander" or "captain." Many of the balloons landed in the vicinity of Interstate 270 and Highway L11. Pressecont Parest this sign of quality.

Products

It's important, of course, but so is the other word up there . . . service.

It means a Pharmacist interested in you; it means convenient hours; it means complete stocks so you can get your prescription promptly. All that . . . PLUS sovings . . . is what makes your Walgreen Pharmacist so proud to welcome you . . . !
